JOB

DIRECTOR on the HOA BOARD

Background

Part of living in Countryhouse means contributing to our community. The HOA votes in a Board of Directors to oversee its management and operation. This includes enforcing community rules, maintaining shared spaces, managing finances, and representing the interests of homeowners.

Description

The Board of Directors usually meets twice a month. The Director has other responsibilities that are commensurate with her/his experience. This will include sitting on at least one the Countryhouse Committees as a Board liaison.

Skills

- Inspiring and guiding the community, fostering a sense of unity and purpose.
- Effectively conveying information to residents, fellow board members, and external parties.
- Understanding and adhering to HOA legislation and state laws.
- Being flexible and responsive to changing circumstances and needs. Incorporating strategic thinking for the long-term benefit of Countryhouse.
- Acting fairly and in the best interest of the community, avoiding conflicts of interest.
